Do I Stay Christian?

a Book Study for Cedar Park, Roxboro, and other WIRUC churches

This book study, facilitated by Revs. Darryl Macdonald and Elisabeth Jones, will explore and discuss the questions and challenges raised in Brian McLaren's book, Do I Stay Christian? A Guide for the Doubters, the Disappointed, and the Disillusioned. A safe space to explore how such questions shape our individual lives, and the mission and ministry of our congregations.

The study will take place in two seasons, giving ample time for participants to read and reflect on each section of the book in preparation for collective conversation and response. There will also be opportunity for local participants to attend at least one supplementary onsite discussion per season.

Season 1: Wednesday October 30 to Wednesday December 4 9:30-11:00 am on Zoom.

Season 2: Wednesday January 15 to Wednesday February 26, 9:30-11:00 am on Zoom.

The book is available to borrow from some local libraries, and in hardback, e-book or paperback versions from regular outlets. Feel free to get your copy and start reading. You have lots of time to read, meditate on, and jot down some questions and comments you may have.
